I Will Resign If Necessary, But Won't Bow To Pressure: Shehbaz

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Saturday directed Federal Bureau of Revenue (FBR) authorities to tighten their belts and serve the nation by formulating a strategy to broaden the tax net base without further burdening the honest tax payers.

During a visit to FBR Headquarters, the prime minister said that the incumbent government had the sole agenda on putting Pakistan on path of progress with consistent improvement in the economic indicators.

"Though it may be a difficult journey which requires collective and individual efforts, sincerity and sacrifices and putting forth the national interests supreme over all other interests," he emphasized.

Terminating the staff level arrangement with International Monetary Fund (IMF) as a positive omen for the country's economy, he expressed the hope that IMF board would also give a go ahead in this regard.

The prime minister expressed the confidence that Pakistan could become a great and prosperous country with collective and individual efforts.

The prime minister made it clear that he would not tolerate any lapses, adding that when determination was made with sincerity, paths leading to future were usually carved out.

"I will quit if I need to, but I will not come under any pressure, I want that to be loud and clear."

Earlier, the prime minister arrived at the FBR Headquarters where he was welcomed by Minister for Finance and Revenue Muhammad Aurangzeb, Minister of State for Finance and Revenue Ali Pervaiz Malik and Chairman FBR Malik Amjad Zubair Tiwana.

IMF Reaches $7 Billion Staff-Level Loan Agreement With Islamabad

ISLAMABAD: The International Monetary Fund (IMF) has announced that it has reached a staff-level agreement with Pakistan for an extended fund facility (EFF) of around $7 billion.

The IMF issued a statement in the wee hours of Saturday according to Pakistan terms, praising the country for adhering to the terms set out in the Stand-by Arrangement (SBA) that Shehbaz Sharif led PDM government signed with the Fund in 2023.

Faced with chronic mismanagement, Pakistan's economy has found itself on the brink, challenged by the Covid-19 pandemic, the effects of the war in Ukraine and supply difficulties that fuelled inflation, as well as record flooding that affected a third of the country in 2022.

With its foreign currency reserves dwindling, Pakistan found itself in a debt crisis and was forced to turn to the IMF, obtaining its first emergency loan in the summer of 2023.

The latest bailout, coming to Pakistan in the form of loans, follows a commitment by the government to implement reforms, including a major effort to broaden the country's tax base.

According to the statement, Pakistan will be receiving the money in the next three years if it lives up to the promises the current government has made with the Fund. These include measures to tax everyone in the county and privatise the state's own organisations.

Additionally, Pakistan will be required to secure more loans from its friends, namely China, Saudi Arabia, and the UAE.

under the 2023 Stand-by Arrangement (SBA), IMF staff and the Pakistani authorities have reached a staff-level agreement on a 37-month Extended Fund Facility Arrangement (EFF) of about US$7 billion. This agreement is subject to approval by the IMF's Executive Board" the statement from the Fund read.

In a nation of over 240 million people and where most jobs are in the informal sector, only 5.2 million filed income tax returns in 2022.

During the 2024-25 fiscal year which starts July 1, the government aims to raise nearly $46 billion in taxes, a 40 per cent increase from the previous year.

As part of the push, Pakistan's tax authority earlier this month blocked 210,000 SIM cards of users who have not filed tax returns in a bid to widen the revenue bracket.

The IMF said the new program would help authorities improve macroeconomic stability and create conditions for stronger, more inclusive, and resilient growth. "This includes steps to strengthen fiscal and monetary policy and reforms to broaden the tax base, improve State-Owned Enterprises' (SOE) management, strengthen competition, secure a level playing field for investment, enhance human capital, and scale up social protection through increased generosity and coverage in the Benazir Income Support Program (BISP)," the statement added.

"Continued strong financial support from Pakistan's development and bilateral partners will be critical for the program to achieve its objectives," it said.—RT/Agency

Immediate Release of Imran and Bushra Bibi Unlikely After Arrests In Other Cases

ISLAMABAD: The National Accountability Bureau (NAB) is expected to issue arrest warrant for Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) founder Imran Khan's wife Bushra Bibi in a new Toshakhana case, Geo News reported citing sources.

A team of the anti-corruption watchdog headed by Deputy Director Mohsin Harper reached Adiala Jail to question the former first lady over alleged "misuse of power for acquiring Toshakhana gifts". In another development, the sources revealed that Lahore police did not make any progress to nab the former prime minister after his interim bail was dismissed by the anti-terrorism court (ATC) two days ago. It emerged that Khan's arrest was not declared in May 9, 2023, riots cases as per the Adiala Jail records. A police team is expected to reach Adiala Jail tomorrow to arrest the PTI founder, the sources added.—RT/Agency

IMF Program To Aid In Achieving Macroeconomic Stability: Finance Minister

ISLAMABAD: Finance Minister Muhammad Aurangzeb on Saturday said that the newly inked bailout deal with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) will help achieve macroeconomic stability.

The finance minister made the remarks after the cash-strapped country reached a 37-month, $7 billion aid package deal, with the Washington-based institution, giving much-needed respite to the struggling economy.

Aurangzeb said that under the programme "we need to ensure structural reforms and bring self-sustainability in areas of public finance, energy, and state-owned institutions" which he hoped to achieve in the next few years.

The new loan program, which needs to be validated by the Fund's Executive Board, should enable Pakistan to "cement macroeconomic stability and create conditions for stronger, more inclusive and resilient growth," the IMF said while announcing the deal.

Faced with chronic mismanagement, Pakistan's economy has found itself on the brink, challenged by the COVID-19 pandemic, the effects of the war in Ukraine and supply difficulties that fuelled inflation, as well as record flooding that affected a third of the country in 2022.

With its foreign currency reserves dwindling, the cash-strapped nation found itself in a debt crisis and was forced to turn to the IMF, obtaining its first emergency loan in the summer of 2023.

Pakistan initiated discussions with the lender for the new multi-billion dollar loan agreement — its 24th bailout in more than six decades — to support its economic reform program.

population already lives below the poverty line, the World Bank said in April it feared that 10 million additional Pakistanis would fall below this threshold.

Islamabad also aims to reduce its fiscal deficit by 1.5% to 5.9% in the coming year, heading another key IMF demand.

The last loan — a nine-month $3 billion IMF deal — proved a lifeline.

But it came on the condition of unpopular austerity measures, including an end to subsidies cushioning consumer costs.

In recent months, the current account balance has recovered slightly, high inflation is just starting to come down, but Pakistan's foreign debt remains very high at $242 billion.

Servicing it will still swallow up half of the government's income in 2024, according to the IMF.

The Fund also anticipates 2% growth this year, with inflation still expected to reach nearly 25% year-on-year, before gradually coming down in 2025 and 2026.—RT/Agency

Nawaz Convenes High-Level PML-N Meeting Following Supreme Court Verdict

LAHORE: Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N) President Nawaz Sharif summoned an important meeting to devise further course of action after the Supreme Court (SC) of Pakistan's verdict in the reserved seats case, media reported citing sources.

The meeting will be attended by Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif, Chief Minister (CM) Punjab Maryam Nawaz, and other bigwigs of the PML-N, the sources privy to the development said.

The federal cabinet members will also attend the meeting which is specifically called for discussing crucial matters aftermath of the apex court's verdict, declaring the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) backed Sunni Ittehad Council (SIC) eligible for reserved seats.

The sources added that the Nawaz Sharif-headed meeting will also engage in consultations on other key issues.

Prime Minister's Advisor on Political and Public Affairs Rana Sanaullah said on Friday that the decision in the reserved seats case cannot be termed a "conspiracy" against the government.

Addressing a presser in Islamabad, Rana Sanaullah said that the judges are also human beings and their opinions can be disagreed with. The PM's advisor said the federal cabinet will decide availing the option of filing a review petition into the matter, adding that the legal team will be consulted to file a review petition in the apex court.

"If the government does not file a review petition, the suspended members of the assembly may file review appeals," he added.

Rana Sanaullah said that the government has great regard for the apex court and the judges.

Earlier in the day, the SC overturned the denial of reserved seats to the PTI-backed Sunni Ittehad Council Justice Mansoor Ali Shah announced the 8-5 majority verdict on a petition filed by the Sunni Ittehad Council (SIC), an ally of the PTI.

-Can you believe this? PTI's Sanam Javed Re-Arrested Immediately After Release In Gujranwala

GUJRANWALA: Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) activist and social worker Sanam Javed was re-arrested by Islamabad police immediately after her release from Central Jail Gujranwala on court orders on Saturday, media reported.

Javed was released on judicial orders from Judge Naeem Saleem of the Gujranwala Anti-Terrorism Court, following directives from the Lahore High Court. Despite her release, Islamabad police detained her as soon as she stepped out of the jail.

Three days earlier, the Lahore High Court had acquitted Javed of charges related to the May 9 incident, ordering her release.

According to Express News, her lawyers arrived at the jail with court orders, and the jail authorities completed the legal formalities for her release. However, before she could leave, a heavy contingent of Islamabad police, in coordination with Gujranwala police, was waiting outside and took her into custody.

During the process of her release and subsequent re-arrest, all routes to and from Gujranwala Jail remained closed for eight hours.

Islamabad police did not allow anyone, including her family, to approach Javed during her re-arrest, and no reasons were provided for her detention.—RT/Agency

President Zardari Urges Collaborative Efforts For Sustainable Development

ISLAMABAD: President Asif Ali Zardari has emphasised the need for collaborative efforts to ensure sustainable development and common prosperity through China's Global Development Initiative (GDI).

Virtually addressing the 2nd High-Level Meeting of the Forum on Global Action for Shared Development, organised by the China International Development Cooperation Agency (CIDCA) in Beijing, President Zardari highlighted the initiative's potential in shaping the future of global development.

During his address, the president underscored the importance of viewing global challenges such as progress, development, and health from an Eastern perspective.

He pointed out that a significant portion of the world's population resides in the Eastern hemisphere, particularly in countries like China, Pakistan, and their neighboring nations.

President Zardari also lauded the GDI for its potential to foster shared development and urged developing countries to take a leading role in the global development process. He stressed that initiatives like GDI could pave the way for a more equitable and prosperous world by promoting collaborative efforts among nations.—RT/Agency

PML-N To Challenge Supreme Court Ruling On PTI Reserved Seats

RAWALPINDI: The Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N) has announced it will challenge the Supreme Court's ruling on PTI's reserved seats. During a press conference in Rawalpindi, PML-N leader Hanif Abbasi criticised the decision, stating that the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) was not even a party in the case but was granted undue relief.

Abbasi questioned the constant reinterpretation of the Constitution, which he claimed favoured PTI.

Abbasi revealed that independent members have been given 15 days to join a party, a period he argued is excessive.

He pointed out that the Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) only withdrew the party's electoral symbol due to a failure to conduct intra-party elections, and not because it dissolved the party. Abbasi also condemned the Supreme Court's recognition of 39 PTI candidates for reserved seats, calling it an illegal move. He announced that PML-N, along with other political parties, would file a review petition against the decision.

Abbasi criticised what he described as judicial facilitation reminiscent of former chief justice Saqib Nisar's tenure. He accused the court of violating constitutional and legal principles and mentioned planned protests and legal battles against the ruling.—RT/Agency

Water shortage intensifies in Umerkot

By Muhammad Bachal

UMERKOT: In Umerkot, the scarcity of drinking water has intensified due to the crisis in water supply during the month of Muharram-ul-Haram. Municipal administration officials have been absent, prompting civilian protests. Various areas of the city such as Chang Muhalla, Shaikh Muhalla, Chana Muhalla, Ayesha Market, Shivani Muhalla, Makra Chowk, Kunbhar Muhalla, Chandiram Muhalla and Harchandani Muhalla are facing severe water shortages, causing distress among residents. The lack of water has led to the emergence of various diseases, forcing residents to use contaminated water sources, exacerbating health concerns. The municipal committee has remained silent and inactive, drawing criticism from political and social circles in Umerkot. Leaders like Abdul Ghaffar Nagori, Ali Muhammad, Ramesh Kumar, and others have blamed administrative negligence for the ongoing water crisis, which has persisted for 12 days without any relief in sight. The municipal administration's failure to address the water shortage during Muharram-ul-Haram has further intensified the difficulties faced by the citizens. In response to the protests, Deputy Commissioner Umerkot Naveed-ul-Rehman Larik has issued a notice regarding the water supply issue and assured prompt resolution. He has pledged to personally oversee the matter and ensure the immediate provision of water to affected areas.

PML-N's TMK chapter rallies against Supreme Court's decision

By Abdul Sattar

TANDO MUHAMMAD KHAN: The Pakistan Muslim League (N) District Tando Muhammad Khan staged a protest rally against the Supreme Court's decision to allocate reserved seats to Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI). The rally culminated in a strong demonstration in front of the press club. On this occasion, the district President of PML-N Tando Muhammad Khan, Qazi Ghulam Hussain Solangi, along with Arshad Panhwar, Hussain Ahmed, Nanji Thakur, and others, expressed that the Supreme Court's decision will have negative impacts on Pakistan's economy. They asserted that efforts to weaken the PML-N government will not succeed. They further stated that the Supreme Court's decision is contradictory and not unanimous, which is why PML-N rejects it. They claimed that PML-N has not always received justice from the courts, citing examples such as the disqualification of Mian Nawaz Sharif and the continuous rulings against PML-N leadership. The protesters rejected this perceived injustice and appealed to the Supreme Court of Pakistan to reconsider the given decision.

Reopening of LPG shops demanded in Nawabshah

By Samad Ayaz

NAWABSHAH: The leaders of the LP Gas Association, Engineer Rasheed Ahmed Bhutto, Syed Rustam Ali Shah, Kashif Zardari, Umar Farooq, Zahir Hussain, Lal Chand, Sohail Ahmed, Rizwan Ahmed, and other district leaders addressed a press conference at the Nawabshah Press Club regarding the unauthorized closure of LP Gas shops. The district administration closed our shops without any prior notice, which we strongly condemned. We approached Deputy Commissioner Shahid Benazirabad in writing, and although he met with us, no resolution was reached. We were informed that we must comply with the closure, which has caused us significant financial losses since our shops have been closed for a week. In several cities of Sindh, LP Gas shops remain open, but only in Nawabshah District did they unlawfully close them. Deputy Commissioner Shahid Benazirabad was requested to allow us to reopen our shops so that we can continue to support our families.

Tail-end growers of Noor Wah Canal protest against acute water shortage

By Hashim Brohi

JACOBABAD: The growers living along the tail-end areas of the Noor Wah Canal, Jacobabad, protested against the shortage of irrigation water. Under the leadership of Syed Qurban Shah, Hashim Brohi, Farhan Bhangar, Syed Imtiaz Shah, Gulsher Khoso and Hakim Manjho, they staged a protest march against the water scarcity and shouted slogans against the officials of the Irrigation Department. Demonstrators gathered at the location of 11-Miles, stating that there is no shortage of water in the Indus River and Began Canal, but engineers and the district police officer of Jacobabad have illegally cut off water to the growers of Noor Wah Canal. They mentioned that due to the lack of water, thousands of acres of agricultural land are turning barren, and seeds for rice crops on hundreds of acres are drying up, causing significant financial losses to the residents. They further noted that despite several complaints to the Irrigation Department officials about water scarcity, no action has been taken. Last year, water was provided on the basis of bribes, and now they are demanding that Chief Minister Sindh and other high officials provide full-flow water to the tail-end growers of Noor Wah Canal to prevent economic disaster. They also announced plans to continue their protest to bypass if their demand is not accepted.

Two Kashmir cops embrace martyrdom in the line of duty

By Aftab Bhatti

KASHMIRE: The Sindh Police, particularly Kashmir Police, have faced numerous casualties in the line of duty, combating terrorism, crime, and lawlessness. These martyrs have made significant sacrifices to safeguard the residents of Sindh and uphold peace and order in the region. Recently, a tragic incident occurred where Constable Allah Dino Sabzoi of District Police Kashmir laid down his life while bravely resisting a cowardly attack by bandits, resulting in the martyrdom of another brave soul, Head Constable Nisar Ahmed Kalhoro. The sacrifices of these brave personnel have never gone unnoticed. The Kashmir Police have consistently treated the families of these martyrs as their own on every occasion. Now is the time for all of us to come together to pay homage to our martyrs and honor their sacrifices. In tribute to the martyrs, the Sindh Police have established memorials in Karachi and other parts of Sindh to honor the memory of those who have laid down their lives while protecting the public in the line of duty. The Government of Sindh has also announced several commendable initiatives to support the families of martyred police officers and officials, including financial assistance, educational opportunities, employment support, and healthcare facilities. Ultimately, the valor, bravery and sacrifices of our martyrs will never be forgotten and their legacy will continue to inspire future generations of the police force. The fight against terrorism and criminal culture will persevere until this menace is completely eradicated once and for all.

Article 151, 106 rewritten in reserved seats case verdict: Khawaja Asif

ISLAMABAD: Defence Minister Khawaja Asif on Saturday said that the Supreme Court's decision in reserved seats case was not constitutional.

Talking to media Khawaja Asif, a PML-N veteran, said that political ramifications can be clearly seen in the verdict.

Federal minister claimed that in decision the court has rewritten the constitution's Article 151 and 106. "Re-writing the constitution has not been the judiciary's function, this can be done by the parliament," he pointed out.

Khawaja Asif said that the Sunni Itehad Council (SIC) went to the court in the case, the PTI was not anywhere in it. "When the complainant didn't knock the door for justice, you are providing relief to it," minister said.

He said, when the members have submitted affidavit of the Sunni Itehad Council, it is home delivery of the decision. Khawaja Asif said the government will decide on Monday to go for the review of the court decision or give any other reaction.

The Supreme Court announced its split verdict with 8-5 division on Friday over a petition with regard to allocation of special seats filed by the Sunni Itehad Council (SIC).

Sindh Energy Minister Nasir Shah Criticizes Judiciary's Pro-PTI Ruling

Karachi: Sindh Provincial Minister for Energy and Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) leader Syed Nasir Hussain Shah expressed criticism towards the judiciary and political opponents during a press conference in Karachi. Shah emphasized that PPP members have consistently respected court decisions, despite feeling that their leaders, including Shaheed Bibi, President Asif Ali Zardari, and Ms. Farayal Talpur, have not received justice. He cited the removal of former Prime Minister Yusuf Raza Gilani as an example of perceived judicial bias against the PPP.

Shah criticized the recent Supreme Court decision, calling it ambiguous and questioning whether Article 62 and 63 would apply to the members of the Sunni Itehad Council, who are required to submit new affidavits. He refrained from commenting on the Nihal Iddat case, labeling it a personal matter.

Highlighting the development efforts in Karachi since 2008, Shah noted that billions of rupees have been spent on the city, which he claims has resulted in increased support for the PPP.

evidenced by their recent electoral success and the election of a PPP mayor.

Despite expressing reservations about the Supreme Court's decision, Shah reiterated the PPP's respect for the judiciary and other institutions. He attributed the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party's current challenges to its own mistakes, including the failure to conduct intra-party elections, which he argued was not the fault of the Election Commission.

Shah also commented on the Supreme Court's verdict, mentioning social media claims that the judgment did not explicitly call for the immediate swearing-in of a new prime minister. He reassured that the election process would proceed on schedule and invited all parties to discuss electoral reforms.

Addressing the economic situation, Shah criticized the previous PTI government, accusing it of worsening economic conditions despite initially pledging not to approach the IMF. He stated that the PPP had offered to support the Sunni Itehad Council or PTI in forming the government, but ultimately supported the PMLN for the sake of democracy and parliamentary stability.

Shah questioned how media and the public seemed aware of Supreme Court decisions in advance and dismissed rumors of Mian Shehbaz Sharif's potential resignation, asserting that there was no such situation.—RT

Hafiz Naeem calls Supreme Court verdict a 'gust of fresh air'

LAHORE: Jamaat-e-Islami's Ameer has termed the Supreme Court's decision in special seats case a gentle fresh air in current political situation, media reported on Saturday.

Hafiz Naeem ur Rehman talking to media demanded resignation of the chief election commissioner and all other concerned persons after the court's decision.

"Those political parties, playing on both sides of the wicket, should accept the apex court's decision in totality," he urged.

He also demanded electoral reforms. Talking on local governments, Hafiz Naeem said, "We don't talk about the local bodies but the local

Petrol and diesel prices set to rise again in upcoming review

ISLAMABAD: Continuing with the rising trend, the major petroleum products — petrol and high-speed diesel (HSD) — are estimated to increase by more than Rs7.60 and Rs3.50 per litre, respectively, with effect from July 16 for the next fortnight, mainly because of higher global oil prices.

Sources said the prices of petrol and HSD had increased in the international market by about $4 and $2 per barrel, respectively, in the last fortnight. Depending on final calculation and existing tax rates, the price of petrol is projected to rise by Rs7.60 per litre and that of HSD by Rs3.50.

The government has jacked up the maximum limit of petroleum development levy (PDL) to Rs70 per litre in the Finance Bill to collect Rs1.28 trillion in the current fiscal year against Rs960bn collection during the previous year, at Rs91bn higher than the Rs869bn budget target.—RT/Agency

FBR to enforce retailers tax scheme in 42 cities

ISLAMABAD: The Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) has decided to expand the fixed tax scheme for retailers to 42 cities with a minimum tax amount ranging from Rs100 to 10,000 per month, depending on the valuation rates of shops.

Under the International Monetary Fund (IMF) programme, the FBR has envisaged an annual collection of Rs50 billion from the scheme during the current fiscal year.

Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif is scheduled to visit the FBR headquarters on Saturday (today) to get a detailed briefing on digitisation and the way forward for placing end-to-end connectivity for broadening the tax base.

Official sources said the FBR shared a detailed working of fair valuation rates of all 42 cities with the retailers' representatives. A minimum tax of Rs1,200 to Rs120,000 was proposed for retailers depending on the valuation of shops across the country.

"A detailed working has been done by the FBR and shared with retailers. Now the FBR chairman has taken the firm stand that all retailers will have to contribute to national kitty," said the sources.

Municipal Committee Gojra's inept performance irks masses

By Abid Mehmood Ch

TOBA TEK SINGH: The rainfall that occurred more than 36 hours ago has exposed the Municipal Committee of Gojra's failure, despite their grant from the World Bank. The rainwater is still visible on the streets and lanes, while the administration is deflecting blame for their poor performance.

Meanwhile, at the busiest and most critical location in the city, the underpass in Gojra is presenting a lake-like view, while instead of draining rainwater from the underpass, the Municipal Committee has blocked the drains during train movement by cutting down trees, embankments and further excavating severe problems increased difficulties for the citizens. The administration seems indifferent to the escalating railway line, posing a situation.

SSP Traffic Azam Jamali reviews traffic plan for Muharram-ul-Haram

By Asif Qureshi

KARACHI: Following the instructions of IG Sindh Gulam Nabi Memon, SSP Traffic Malir Azam Jamali convened an important meeting at his Malir office with all DSPs, SHOs, and other officials of Malir. During the meeting, he discussed security arrangements for the routes of processions and gatherings from the 1st to the 10th of Muharram in various areas. He also issued instructions for maintaining traffic flow in the sensitive areas of District Malir, including Steel Town, Pipri, Quaidabad, Malir, Sandabad, Jafar Tavyar and Model Colony, and for keeping them open via different routes. In a conversation with the media, SSP Traffic Malir Azam

Jamali stated that during the 1st to the 10th of Muharram, traffic will be controlled on routes of gatherings and processions, and legal action will be taken against various transports violating laws on the National Highway. Additionally, motorcyclists and drivers of four-wheeled vehicles will be continuously warned not to drive in wrong-way lanes or one-way streets and to avoid illegal parking; otherwise, they will be fined. The meeting was attended by Malir DSPs Yameen Gujar, Muhammad Aslam Unar, Fasihuddin, Majnu Khan Unar, SHOs Gulam Sarwar, Shabbaz Ali, Asad Ali, Malik Saifdar, Abdul Rahim, Gaji Dino Shah, Nisar Ahmed, Ali Hassan, Jamal Abdul Mansoor, Raza Muhammad, Naseebullah, Muhammad Saeed, and record keepers Gulam Nabi, Hassan Mazhar, Sajid Gujar, Abdul Hafeez Kalor, Ghulam Rasool, Naem Jan, Imran Ahmed, Nasir Khan, Abdul Jabbar, Ghulam Muhammad, Muhammad Safar, and Nazir Ahmed, among other officers and personnel.

The ridiculous persecution of Imran Khan is beyond the ordinary

The continued persecution of Imran Khan by the government of Pakistan is not only a massive travesty of justice but also a blatant abuse of fundamental rights. This relentless mockery must end to allow Pakistan to move forward and recover from the deep well of despair it has descended into over the past two and a half years. Despite the acquittal of Imran and Bushra Bibi in the Iddat case, their arrest in a new Toshakhana case hours later epitomizes the extent of judicial harassment they face.

Imran Khan's journey through the labyrinth of the Pakistani legal system reveals a pattern that goes beyond the ordinary. Each time hope arises for his release, a new case conveniently surfaces, dragging him back into incarceration. The timing of these new charges raises serious questions about the integrity and motives behind the judicial actions against him. This calculated maneuvering is nothing short of a blatant abuse of power and a perversion of justice.

The government's resolve to keep Imran Khan imprisoned for its entire term, as admitted by Planning Minister Ahsan Iqbal, speaks volumes about the political nature of his persecution. Such an approach not only undermines the rule of law but also erodes public trust in the judicial system. The courts must take notice of this egregious misuse of the legal process and act to restore fairness and justice.

Imran Khan's continued incarceration serves no purpose other than to stifle political dissent and maintain a façade of stability. This relentless pursuit of a political vendetta must cease. Pakistan's progress and the restoration of its democratic values hinge on the fair and just treatment of all its citizens, including political leaders. It is high time that the government stops this farcical persecution and allows Imran Khan to participate freely in the political process. Only then can Pakistan hope to emerge from its current state of turmoil and despair.

JSQM protests against lack of facilities at Taluka Hospital Tando Adam

By Mumtaz Ali

TANDO ADAM: A protest demonstration was recorded against the lack of facilities at the Taluka Hospital Tando Adam at the main Makkah Chowk in the city. The protest was led by JSQM leaders Allahdad Marri, Ghulam Shabir Kurejo, Tanveer Ahmed Naqshbandi and others, who voiced their concerns over the lack of facilities at the hospital. They highlighted issues such as the absence of sufficient staff for patient care, shortages of medicines, including essential government medications, and the unavailability of various specialists like cardiologists, gastroenterologists, TB specialists, and surgeons. It was pointed out that while wards for heart and kidney patients are under construction, doctors, equipment, and necessary supplies are inadequate, with government doctors being deputed to various private hospitals. Furthermore, they demanded that the hospital's monthly budget is insufficient, with patient numbers far exceeding capacity. The demonstrators also called for the establishment of specialized departments within the trauma center to meet quality standards, urging comprehensive renovation of cardiac and kidney departments within the hospital.

Allama Syed Sajid Ali Naqvi stresses need for promoting love for Hazrat Imam Hussain (AS)

By Mumtaz Ali

TANDO ADAM: Allama Syed Sajid Ali Naqvi in a message issued on Monday has emphasized that the mourning for the grandson of the Holy Prophet Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW), Hazrat Imam Hussain (AS), fostered love and brotherhood among all sects and schools of thought. This devotion to the Ahle Bait (family of the Prophet) also grew. However, this situation became intolerable for narrow-minded extremist elements, who devised unholy plans to eliminate this culture of love for Hazrat Imam Hussain (AS) by spreading sectarianism. A specific group was utilized to spread sectarianism, issuing fatwas of disbelief against the Shia school of thought, publishing vile and inflammatory literature, and using mosques, madaris and public places in this filthy campaign. Public meetings openly poisoned the minds of the naive against the Shia school of thought. Despite these provocations and lawlessness, no miscreant was arrested or prosecuted. This prolonged sectarianism was turned into violence, leading to mourning ceremonies being held under tight security. Allama Sajid Naqvi noted that despite constitutional protections for fundamental rights, civil liberties, and religious rights, oppressive measures were taken under sectarian pressure. Unauthorized orders were issued to allow only licensed and traditional processions, halting the initiation of new mourning processions. Over the past few years, even further steps have been taken, including filing illegal procession charges against any new mourning procession. All processions were planned to be traditional, eventually being phased out. First, the transfer of licenses to the heirs of deceased license holders was stopped. In the second phase, some traditional processions were halted through conspiracies involving miscreants, with administrative promises to allow these processions the following year, which were then denied. He also pointed out that this systematic plan included false reports leading to FIRs and placing peaceful, law-abiding citizens on the Fourth Schedule, imposing unjustified restrictions on the use of loudspeakers in mourning gatherings, requiring permission for Majalis, limiting the duration of Majalis and processions, restricting or altering mourning processions, canceling licenses after the death of the license holder without transferring them to heirs, canceling licenses for processions, silencing scholars and speakers, and preventing public participation in Majalis and processions. These unconstitutional and illegal measures aim to limit the mourning for Hazrat Imam Hussain (AS). Therefore, he urged the police and administration to refrain from taking steps to abandon their fundamental, constitutional, and legal right to mourn.

Jacobabad Police make foolproof security arrangements for Muharram-ul-Haram

By Hashim Brohi

JACOBABAD: Jacobabad Police has prepared a security plan for Muharram-ul-Haram, with 24 processions and gatherings marked as highly sensitive, 59 as sensitive, and duties assigned to over 2,990 security officers and personnel. There will be 163 processions and 207 gatherings held in total. According to details, Jacobabad police have formulated a security plan for Muharram-ul-Haram to maintain peace and security, deploying over 2,990 officers and personnel across the district. There will be 163 processions and 207 gatherings, with 24 marked as highly sensitive, 59 as sensitive, and 80 as normal. On the 9th of Muharram, 38 processions and 17 gatherings will take place, while on the 10th, 53 processions and 17 gatherings are scheduled. In the interest of peace and security, 33 additional police checkpoints have been established on internal and external routes of the district, with searches conducted for every incoming vehicle. Over 100 CCTV cameras have been installed along procession routes, and surveillance will be carried out using 2 drone cameras. Additionally, more than 20 police mobiles will remain present during processions, streets have been sealed off with barbed wire and a bomb disposal squad is on standby for immediate response in case of any incidents. SSP Jacobabad Syed Saleem Shah has appealed to the public to remain vigilant in their surroundings and immediately inform the nearest police station or helpline about any suspicious or unusual situations.

Villa close to signing Everton's Onana for £50m

Aston Villa are in advanced talks to sign midfielder Amadou Onana for Everton for a fee in the region of £50m.

The 22-year-old featured for Belgium at Euro 2024 and would have the opportunity to play Champions League football next season.

Onana joined from Lille for £33m in August 2022 and has gone on to make 72 appearances for the Toffees, scoring four goals.

Arsenal held an initial conversation with Onana's representatives earlier this year but did not follow up on their interest.

It is understood Villa's fee meets Everton's valuation of the midfielder, who also had interest from Manchester United.

Senegal-born Onana has also played for Hamburg, having progressed through the ranks at Hoffenheim after starting in Anderlecht's academy.

Villa have been in the market for a new midfielder after selling Douglas Luiz to Juventus for £42.35m last month.

They are also expected to complete the return of Jaden Philogene in the coming days after the Hull winger flew back from the Tigers' training camp in Turkey on Friday.

The England Under-21 winger is due to sign a five-year contract in a move worth about £18m, returning to Villa Park less than 12 months after being sold to the Tigers.

Villa included a matching option in his move last September and snatched him from Ipswich, who had agreed an £18m deal with Hull. —Agency

Australia win thriller to clinch series against Wales

Wales suffered a ninth successive international defeat as Australia wrapped up the series 2-0 with victory in an eight-try thriller in Melbourne.

Two tries from Filipo Daugunu, further scores from Jake Gordon and Allan Alaalatao and 13 points from Noah Lolesio's boot helped Australia achieve a successful start to Joe Schmidt's era following the 25-16 win in Sydney last weekend.

Wales responded with two tries from inspirational captain Dewi Lake, while returns Liam Williams and Rio Dyer also crossed.

Warren Gatland's side rallied from a sluggish start as they slipped to a 17-0 deficit inside 25 minutes, but left themselves with too much work to do.

Lake has been the Wales' success story of this tour with his tries coming from rolling mauls, which have proved the tourists' most potent attacking threat.

Gatland under scrutiny

Gatland will find himself under pressure because of the wretched recent record with Wales having not won a Test match since the 2023 World Cup pool win against Georgia nine months ago.

They are now just one loss away from equalling the nation's worst losing sequence of 10 under Steve Hansen between 2002 and 2003.

This ninth defeat marks the longest number of matches without a Test win during Gatland's association with Wales that began in 2008, ended 11 years later and resumed ahead of the 2023 Six Nations.

Gatland has only won six out of 21 matches since his return and Wales have finished bottom of the Six Nations for the first time in 21 years and slipped to 11th in the world rankings, their lowest ever position.

Their losing record against the Wallabies in Australia has also extended to 13 consecutive defeats with no victory since 1969.

While there is a tour match to follow against Queensland Reds in Brisbane next Friday, Wales do not play another international until Fiji arrive at Cardiff's Principality Stadium in November. —Agency

India beat Pakistan to win World Championship of Legends

BIRMINGHAM: Ambati Rayudu's half-century after Anureet Singh's three-for led India Champions to beat Pakistan by five wickets and win the World Championship of Legends here at Edgbaston on Saturday.

Set to chase 157, India Champions knocked the winning runs on the first delivery of the final over when Irfan Pathan hit Sohail Tanvir for a four.

Younis Khan's decision to bat first after winning the coin toss did not bear fruits for the Pakistan Champions as they put a par total on the board.

Pakistan Champions had a shaky start to their innings as their in-form hard-hitting opener Sharjeel Khan (12) fell victim to Anureet Singh in the second over with just 14 runs on the board.

Sohaib Maqsood then joined Kamran Akmal in the middle for a briefly anchoring partnership as the duo could raise 29 runs for the second wicket.

Maqsood, who tried to counterattack the India Champions bowlers fell prey to Vinay Kumar in the fifth over after scoring a quick 21 off 12.

Pakistan Champions then lost two more wickets in quick succession — Kamran Akmal (24) and Younis Khan (7) — and consequently slipped to 79/4 in 11.3 overs.

Shoaib Malik, the leading run-scorer of the World Championship of Legends, took the reigns of Pakistan Champions batting expedition against India Champions and kept the scoreboard ticking with an anchoring knock.

Malik put together brief partnerships with Misbah-ul-Haq (18) and Aamer Yamin (7) before walking back to the dugout on the last delivery of the 18th over.

He remained the top-scorer for Pakistan Champions with a gutsy 41 off 36 deliveries, laced up with three sixes. —RT/Agency

Barrett sparks fightback as All Blacks beat England

Replacement Beauden Barrett inspired a New Zealand fightback in their 24-17 win over England to claim the series 2-0 at Eden Park.

The All Blacks trailed by four points before two-time world player of the year Barrett was introduced off the bench to set up Mark Tele'a's second try and break English resistance.

England had threatened to become the first side to win at Eden Park in 30 years after excellent tries by Immanuel Feyi-Waboso and Tommy Freeman handed them a slender advantage at half-time.

In a frenetic game littered by handling errors on the grassy Auckland surface, the All Blacks struggled to wrestle back momentum and Marcus Smith stretched England's lead with a penalty before Barrett's arrival from the bench.

The full-back cut a composed figure as he first kicked Scott Robertson's era as head coach.

Opportunity evades spirited England again

England arrived at the spiritual home of All Black rugby sensing an opportunity to spring a famous upset after their narrow defeat in last week's first Test in Dunedin.

Many of England's young squad were not born the last time New Zealand were beaten at Eden Park, by France in 1994, but they were undaunted.

Tele'a handed the All Blacks the lead as he reacted quickest to pick up the ball from a ruck and scamper clear but England hit back through his opposite number Feyi-Waboso.

The wing latched on to a pinpoint Marcus Smith crossing-field kick before beating Tele'a and Damian McKenzie to score his fourth try in six England appearances.

Smith was disappointing from the tee in Dunedin but his accurate kicking from hand is a real weapon for England and New Zealand failed to heed the early warning as Freeman was the beneficiary of another smart cross-field kick to hand the visitors the lead.

They held a one-point advantage at the break but the All Blacks were boosted by the introduction of Beauden Barrett — the oldest of the three Barrett brothers in the matchday squad.

The utility back prowled the back field and nullified England's kicking game as the hosts began to control the battle for territory. —Agency

Wood added to England squad for second Test

England have added fast bowler Mark Wood to their squad for the second Test against West Indies at Trent Bridge.

Wood, 34, missed the huge win in the first Test after being part of the England squad for the T20 World Cup in June.

The Durham man takes the place of James Anderson, England's all-time leading wicket-taker who ended his international career at Lord's.

If England opt to retain Chris Woakes and Gus Atkinson in their XI, Wood will be vying with Matthew Potts and the uncapped Dillon Pennington for the remaining pace-bowling slot.

Should Nottinghamshire's Pennington, 25, make his debut, it would be on his home ground.

The second Test in the three-match series begins on Thursday, with the third Test at Edgbaston starting on 26 July.

England men's squad for second Test v West Indies: Ben Stokes (Durham), Gus Atkinson (Surrey), Shoaib Bashir (Somerset), Harry Brook (Yorkshire), Zak Crawley (Kent), Ben Duckett (Nottinghamshire), Dan Lawrence (Surrey), Dillon Pennington (Nottinghamshire), Ollie Pope (Surrey), Matthew Potts (Durham), Joe Root (Yorkshire), Jamie Smith (Surrey), Chris Woakes (Warwickshire), Mark Wood (Durham). —Agency

The Hundred 2024: PCB denies NOC to Naseem Shah

LAHORE: The Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) has decided not to grant fast bowler Naseem Shah the No Objection Certificate to play The Hundred cricket league, under the workload management, sources told media.

This will deprive Naseem of around Rs 45 million as he was signed by Birmingham Phoenix team for £125,000.

As per the sources, the decision has been taken as a preventive measure ahead of the crucial matches of the World Test Championship, after reviewing the application submitted by the Pakistani cricketer for the NOC.

They said his application has been dismissed to protect him from injuries, since he plays in all three formats of the cricket for the national side and he faced some fitness challenges last year.

Naseem underwent a successful surgery to treat his shoulder injury in October 2023. Following which, he had been ruled out of the ICC World Cup 2023.

After that, doctors had advised the young pacer to rest and undergo rehabilitation for a period of four to six weeks before making his return to the ground. This injury forced him out of action for at least three to four months.

In the 46th over, during Pakistan's second game against India at the Asia Cup 2023 in September 2023, the pacer walked off the field after suffering an injury on the reserve day organised for that game. Soon after, the PCB issued a press release stating that the right-armers had been ruled out of the rest of the tournament. —Agency

'England fire first Ashes shot, now must make sure it does not backfire'

James Anderson is now a former England fast bowler. No wonder he was enjoying the Guinness.

Firstly while being interviewed by Nasser Hussain, then downing a pint on the dressing-room balcony, an appearance like the King at Buckingham Palace. This was cricketer royalty taking his final bow.

Even if Anderson's Test farewell didn't quite have the drama achieved by his old mates Alastair Cook and Stuart Broad, the Friday Lord's atmosphere was filled with love as spectators flooded the outfield, taking selfies, throwing catches and caressing the manicured turf.

What a contrast to the last Test played on this ground, in the Ashes last summer. If home fans had been allowed of the series had on England skipper Ben Stokes and coach Brendon McCullum. England's own mistakes contributing to them going 2-0 down, a titanic effort to get back to 2-2 either side of a Manchester washout that denied the chance to regain the urn. For the first two years of the Stokes-McCullum era, everyone from the England set-up would tell anyone who would listen that they "live where their feet are". Now, England have put their feet 10,000 miles and 16 months away on the next tour of Australia. —Agency

US ambassador, Naqvi emphasize stronger cooperation against terrorism, narcotics

US Ambassador to Pakistan Donald Blome met with federal Interior Minister Mohsin Naqvi to discuss Pakistan-US relations and matters of mutual interest. The meeting focused on increasing cooperation in the fields of anti-terrorism, narcotics control, and security. During the discussions, both parties agreed on the importance of strengthening collaboration to combat terrorism and drug trafficking. Minister Naqvi emphasized the significance of US support in enhancing the capacity of Pakistan's law enforcement agencies. "US cooperation is important in enhancing the capacity of law enforcement agencies," he stated. Minister Naqvi assured Ambassador Blome of the Interior Ministry's commitment to making bilateral relations more stable and fruitful. "The Ministry of Interior will provide full support in making mutual relations more stable," he affirmed. One of the key outcomes of the meeting was the announcement that a delegation from the Islamabad Police will visit New York soon to benefit from mutual cooperation. Naqvi highlighted the desire of Islamabad police officers to receive training from the New York Police Department. "Islamabad police officers want training from New York police department," he said. In addition to security cooperation, the protection of minority rights in Pakistan was also discussed. Naqvi reiterated that all minorities in Pakistan have equal rights under the Constitution and that the government is committed to their protection.—RT/Agency

AMPAK BDF & PACC Host Mango Festival 2024 & US Independence Day Celebration

AMPAK BDF and PACC jointly hosted a vibrant Mango Festival 2024 and US Independence Day celebration at PACC, underscoring the cultural exchange and diplomatic relations between Pakistan and the United States. The event commenced with the recitation of the Holy Quran and the national anthems of both nations, fostering a spirit of unity and respect.

Mr. Conrad Tribble, Consul General of the United States, graced the occasion, emphasizing the significance of cultural events in strengthening bilateral ties. He praised the organizers for their efforts in promoting cultural and business exchanges between the two nations.

Dignitaries including diplomats, business leaders, and government officials attended the event, highlighting the importance of US-Pakistan relations. President of AMPAK BDF, Shaikh Imtiaz Hussain, highlighted Pakistan's significant mango exports and thanked Mr. Tribble for his presence.

The festival showcased various mango varieties and culinary delights, celebrating the agricultural heritage shared by Pakistan and the US. A cake-cutting ceremony marked US Independence Day, symbolizing the friendship and mutual respect between the two nations. Organizers expressed gratitude for the event's success and announced plans to continue the Mango Festival and Independence Day celebration annually, reinforcing the partnership between AMPAK BDF and PACC.—RT

Mallah community man demands justice in Sujawal land dispute

By Kamran Hidayat

SUJAWAL: A man named Aari S/o Yousef Mallah staged a protest demonstration against the illegal occupation of his land by his community men. He stated that his agricultural land measuring 20 acres has been forcibly occupied. The land is located in Tapo Amra and has been grabbed by his community men, who also threatened his family and attempted to kill them. He appealed to the authorities to take action against the oppressors who are continuously harassing him and his family, urging the authorities to intervene and provide justice. He also expressed concern over the performance of the police for not taking action against the occupants.

Youth found dead in Nabisar Canal identified

By MM Faisal

KUNRI: In the vicinity of Nabisar Canal, the body of a young man in an advanced state of decomposition was identified through digital means and handed over to his family. According to reports, the body of a young man was discovered near Kanjagi Bridge close to Kunri in Nabisar Canal. Local residents spotted the body and alerted the police. A postmortem examination was conducted at Kunri Taluka Hospital, identifying the deceased as Rasool Bux, aged 35, resident of Deh 208. Police used digital forensic techniques to confirm his identity. His family had reported him missing three days prior and had been searching for him extensively. They were informed by Kunri Police today about the discovery of his body. Relatives stated that Rasool Bux had no known enmity with anyone. The deceased was mute and married, with four children. Kunri Police completed necessary procedures and handed over the body to the family, although Kunri Police mentioned that the family did not wish to pursue legal action. Further investigation is ongoing. Preliminary findings from the post-mortem indicate severe injuries to the right side of the deceased's head, possibly caused by a sharp object, and injuries to the back of the head consistent with a blunt weapon. The deceased, who had been in the water for some time, emitted a strong odor.

TEA, UNESCO distribute science equipment amongst 43 schools in Tharparkar

By Ashraf Kunbhar

MITHI: The Thar Education Alliance, in collaboration with UNESCO, distributed science lab materials to 43 schools. A ceremony was held at the Tharparkar Education Alliance office for the distribution of these materials, attended by educational officers, head teachers, and social workers. This initiative aims to promote scientific education among girls in Tharparkar and establish science labs in schools. Chief Executive Officer of Thar Education Alliance, Partab Shivani, emphasized that this initiative is being undertaken in collaboration with UNESCO to provide scientific education materials, scholarships for girls, and travel allowances for lady teachers, thereby enhancing girls' education and making scientific education more accessible. He further stated that additional projects are under consideration with the cooperation of the Education Department to enroll girls in schools and bring out-of-school children back into the educational system. Primary Deputy Commissioner Jan Muhammad Baig praised the Thar Education Alliance's efforts for the improvement of education and assured continued cooperation with social institutions. Deputy Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners from Mithi, Kaloi, Diplo and Islamkot also expressed their views during the event.

Increasing number of encroachments making life difficult for people of MPK

By Younis Chandio

MIRPURKHAS: Lawlessness is at its peak in Mirpurkhas, while on the other hand, encroachments are increasing everywhere in the city, narrowing the main market streets. On the other hand, drugs are being sold openly in cabins at various city intersections. Civil society, social activists, and the media have repeatedly pointed out these issues, but despite this, no one is ready to take action or legal measures. Although Mirpurkhas is a major city in Sindh, it has been left abandoned due to which the civil society has urged higher authorities to take steps to improve conditions in Mirpurkhas district.

Dejected Larkana grower ends his life

By Saleem Soomro

LARKANA: In a tragic incident of desperation due to not receiving water for his agricultural land, a young man named Qaim Khan S/o Hakim Brohi, hailing from Malook Brohi village, consumed a poisonous substance in an attempt to end his life, facing severe financial losses. He was rushed to Chandka Hospital's emergency ward, where doctors confirmed his demise. At the time of the incident, the deceased young man's uncle, Ghulam Ali Brohi, a journalist by profession, stated that we own 25 acres of agricultural land where we cultivate rice. Due to water scarcity, the rice crop was severely affected, resulting in significant financial losses. Distraught over this situation, he consumed poison and was rushed to the hospital, where doctors confirmed his death. Subsequently, necessary legal procedures were initiated, and the body of the deceased man was handed over to his heirs for burial.

Government bans wheat imports and flour exports

ISLAMABAD: The federal government of Pakistan on Friday imposed a ban on import of wheat and export of flour following excessive import of wheat than country's requirement, stated a notification issued by Ministry of Commerce.

The government has made amendments to the Import and Export Policy Orders 2022, imposing a ban on the import of wheat and export of flour.

Moreover, a ban has also been imposed on export of flour prepared from imported wheat, the notification added.

Earlier in March, the federal government had conditionally allowed the export of flour made from imported wheat under the Export Facilitation Scheme 2021. On July 10, Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif told the National Assembly that the government had made no decision for the export of wheat even as the State-Owned Enterprises (Governance and Operations) Bill, 2024 was rushed through the legislature. "No decision has been made for the export of wheat. I want to bring it on record before the House that there is no such decision for the wheat export," he told the National Assembly responding to a point of order raised by a parliamentarian. However, referring to the PTI government's sugar and wheat scams, he recalled that it was also on record that in the past wheat and sugar were first exported and later imported and where the billions and trillions of rupees went was part of the history. The amendment, which allows the government to remove board members of SOEs based on recommendations from the board nomination committee, had been passed by the Senate the previous week and will become law upon President Asif Ali Zardari's assent.

Traffic plan announced for Karachi's Muharram processions

KARACHI: Karachi Traffic Police has issued a comprehensive traffic diversion plan in light of Muharram processions that will be taking place in the country's financial hub from 8 to 10th Muharram, The News reported on Saturday.

The metropolis, each year, witnesses thousands of mourners participating in several Muharram processions wherein the government and law enforcement agencies chalk out a detailed security plan including cordoning off several streets as part of relevant security measures.

In light of the procession, MA Jinnah Road will be closed off to traffic from Guru Mandir to Tower and only vehicles possessing the necessary permits will be allowed access to it — vehicles with relevant stickers will be allowed to enter the procession through the Highway Leaders Society Light Signal. No vehicles will be allowed to go beyond Guru Mandir and will be diverted towards Bahadur Yar Jung Road Soldier Bazar from there. District Central

CJP Isa 'not interested' in extension: Law Minister Azam Tarar

KARACHI: Law Minister Azam Nazeer Tarar said Saturday that Chief Justice of Pakistan (CJP) Qazi Faez Isa had told him that he was "not interested" in extension of his tenure as the top judge.

Tarar gave the clarification about CJP Isa's extension in tenure while speaking during Geo News programme "Aaj Shahzeb Khanzada Kay Sath". The law minister said that the chief justice, after the meeting of the judicial commission, had told him in the presence of the attorney general that he was not interested in extending his tenure.

He said that CJP Isa had told him that rumors had been circulating about his extension. "I told him (CJP) no such thing is happening at all," he said, adding that the top judge then appreciated him for clarifying the matter.

The law minister noted that he informed the chief justice that work on pension reforms was however underway, which included a suggestion for increasing the age of retirement by two years across all sectors. He then recalled that when the government was considering increasing the retirement age by two years, a suggestion was made that the judges should also be considered in this regard. However, he did not mention who suggested it.

Karachi to sizzle again from July 15

KARACHI: After receiving some respite from the scorching heat due to light rain earlier this week, Karachiites are once again expected to witness another heat spell next week with temperature expected to increase by up to 3°C from July 15 (Monday).

The metropolis, as per weather expert Jawad Memon, is likely to experience an increase in temperature as there's a possibility of a decrease in the speed of the sea breeze due to the formation of a low-pressure area. The weather update comes after the city received heavy rain on Tuesday in several areas of the city followed by light showers. However, despite the rain, the residents have not yet experienced significant relief from the heat.

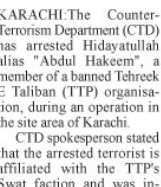

Several parts of the country are currently witnessing monsoon rains with Lahore receiving 315 millimetres of downpour a day earlier which broke a 30-year-old record. A day earlier, the National Disaster Management Authority's (NDMA) National Emergency Operation Centre said that it anticipates an increase in flows in the River Ravi nullahs (Deg, Basanter and Bein) and River Chenab catchments in the next 48 hours. Consequently, people living in low-lying areas may be affected, said the NDMA body. The downpour may disrupt transportation and damage buildings and infrastructure, said the NDMA statement, adding crops and livestock also may be affected. Furthermore, low-to-medium-level flows are expected in the hill torrents of DG Khan division till July 15. Heavy rainfall may increase inflows in the hill torrents of DG Khan and Rajanpur which may affect people, crops, infrastructure and livestock in low-lying areas. The NDMA has advised PDMA and local administrations to closely monitor the situation and take appropriate measures to safeguard the at-risk population. —RT/Agency

Wahab announces plans to redirect heavy traffic to Lyari Expressway

Karachi Mayor Barrister Murtaza Wahab announced plans to divert heavy traffic to the Lyari Expressway to alleviate the pressure on Karachi's main roads.

During a meeting with senior officials from the National Highway Authority, Karachi Port Trust, and Karachi Metropolitan Corporation (KMC) on Friday, Wahab emphasised the need for efficient use of existing infrastructure to manage the city's increasing traffic.

Wahab highlighted the urgent need to organise traffic on Karachi's major roads due to increasing congestion. He pointed out that the Lyari Expressway's opening to heavy traffic would reduce the burden on other key roads and enhance traffic movement. The mayor also noted that heavy traffic passing through various parts of the city severely affects areas from Mauripur to Landhi. This leads to traffic jams on roads such as Mauripur Road, M.T. Khan Road, Sunset Boulevard, Korangi Road, and Jam Sadiq Bridge. The resulting delays not only waste valuable time but also have adverse environmental impacts. Wahab concluded by stressing the importance of resolving these traffic issues promptly, with a third-party report on the feasibility of using the Lyari Expressway for heavy traffic expected by Thursday. —RT/Agency

PIA plane meets with an accident at Jinnah International

KARACHI: A collision occurred between a Pakistan International Airlines (PIA) plane and a water supply vehicle at the Karachi airport, affecting the scheduled additional flight PK-8300 from Karachi to Islamabad.

The mishap resulted in damage to the ATR aircraft when the water supply vehicle accidentally struck it on the tarmac. Fortunately, no casualties were reported among the passengers who were awaiting boarding in the flight's lounge. Following the collision, the authorities decided to cancel the flight to Islamabad. The damaged plane was immediately taken to the engineering department for a thorough inspection to assess the extent of the damage and ensure necessary repairs are carried out. Passengers who were scheduled to travel on PK-8300 were reassigned to alternative flights to minimize inconvenience. PIA officials have assured that arrangements are being made to accommodate affected passengers on other flights departing for Islamabad. The incident has prompted an investigation to determine the cause of the collision and to prevent similar incidents in the future. Airport and airline authorities are coordinating to ensure safety protocols are reinforced and operational disruptions are minimized. —RT/Agency

Shehbaz Promises New IMF Program Will Be Pakistan's Last

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Saturday said that Pakistan needed to embark on a "long and difficult journey" to prevent knocking on the doors of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) again.

"If we want to get rid of loans, we need to consider this IMF programme as the final one," he said.

In the wee hours of Saturday, the international lender announced that Pakistan and the Fund had reached a three-year $7 billion aid package deal, giving much-needed respite to the nation.

The programme, which needs to be approved by the IMF's Executive Board, should enable Pakistan to "cement macroeconomic stability and create conditions for stronger, more inclusive and resilient growth," it said in a statement.

Coming to Pakistan in the form of loans, the latest bailout follows a commitment by the government to implement reforms, including a major effort to broad—on the country's tax base.

Addressing a meeting at the headquarters of the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) today, the premier congratulated Finance Minister Muhammad Aurangzeb and other cabinet members for clinching the programme.

"This cabinet has done a great deal of work to make sure we achieved this goal," he said. "But, we need to pursue a long and difficult journey to augment our macroeconomic numbers. We will spend whatever amount of money to acquire the gadgets required for this purpose. It is our national interest and our duty," he affirmed.

The prime minister further emphasised that now was the time for a "paradigm shift".

"We need to tighten our belts and serve the public," he said. "For the first and last time, we need to act in the national interest. If there's any honest mistake, we'll rectify that. I will quit if I need to, but I will not come under any pressure. I want that to be loud and clear."

Earlier, Geo News quoted the finance minister as saying that the new IMF deal would aid Pakistan in achieving macroeconomic stability.

Under the programme "we need to ensure structural reforms and bring self-sustainability in areas of public finance, energy, and state-owned institutions," he said.

Faced with chronic mismanagement, Pakistan's economy has found itself on the brink, challenged by the Covid-19 pandemic, the effects of the war in Ukraine and supply difficulties that fuelled inflation, as well as record flooding that affected a third of the country in 2022.

With its foreign currency reserves dwindling, Pakistan found itself in a debt crisis and was forced to turn to the IMF, obtaining its first emergency loan in the summer of 2023.

The IMF statement issued earlier today quoted the Fund's mission chief to Pakistan, Nathan Proter, as saying that the new programme "aims to capitalise on the hard-won macroeconomic stability achieved over the past year by furthering efforts to strengthen public finances, reduce inflation, rebuild external buffers and remove economic distortions to spur private sector-led growth."

"In this regard, the authorities plan to increase tax revenues through measures of 1.5 per cent of GDP in FY25 and 3 per cent of GDP over the programme," the lender said. The increase in revenue collections will be achieved through "simpler and fairer direct and indirect taxation, including by bringing net income from the retail, export, and agriculture sectors properly into the tax system". The statement added that federal and provincial governments have agreed to rebalance spending activities in line with the 18th Constitution Amendment by signing a "National Fiscal Pact". Under the agreement, sub-

Imran Urges Establishment To Hold 'Transparent' Elections

RAWALPINDI: Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) founding chairman Imran Khan has reportedly called on the establishment to conduct fresh elections, expressing doubts over the utility of forming a government under current circumstances.

Imran Khan's comments followed Friday's Supreme Court (SC) verdict favouring the PTI in the reserved seats, according to an Express news report.

Speaking informally with journalists during a hearing at Adiala Jail regarding the ₹190 million reference, the PTI supremo emphasised the need for transparent elections.

Welcoming the SC's recent decision to allocate reserved seats to PTI, Imran described it as a positive step that restored public hope. "I thank Allah that the Supreme Court judges stood up for the rule of law, where the powerful are also held accountable," he said.

Referring to the reserved seats verdict, Imran expressed his hope that there was any point in coming into power now, he maintained, "The establishment must conduct clean and transparent elections. If we get reserved seats, we will not engage in any political manoeuvring. The only way to save the country is through fair elections."

Earlier today, in what appears to be a major breakthrough, an Islamabad district and sessions acquitted Imran and his spouse Bushra Bibi against their conviction in the Iddat case, clearing the last legal hurdle keeping the PTI founder in jail.

Imran criticised past judicial decisions, highlighting Justice Munir's capitulation to power, and the denial of party symbols.

Imran also addressed the current economic situation, predicting that next year's budget would be harsher than the present one, with increased tax burdens on the public.

The PTI founder also commented on the possibility of negotiation with the current government setup, he stated his readiness, given three conditions: the dismissal of cases against him, the release of his people, and the restoration of his mandate.

Imran also questioned the ethical propriety of Chief Justice of Pakistan (CJP) Qazi Faez Isa hearing his cases, citing personal biases.

"Justice Gulzar's five-member bench had ruled that Qazi Faez Isa should not hear my cases. The Chief Justice's wife has made statements against me," he asserted.

Imran revealed plans for a hunger strike to draw international attention to his situation, accusing ISI of orchestrating staff transfers in jail to intimidate him.

He humbly mentioned that even a cat that had become attached to him had been relocated. Commenting on internal party issues, Imran downplayed them as private matters.

He demanded a medical examination for a party worker, Abid, whose son had died in solitary confinement and who allegedly attempted self-immolation.—RT/Agency

Islamabad and Washington To Hold Joint 'Law Enforcement Dialogue' In October

ISLAMABAD: As the country continues its efforts to rein in the scourge of terrorism, Pakistan and the United States have agreed on holding a "Law Enforcement Dialogue" in October this year.

The development came during a meeting between Interior Minister Mohsin Naqvi and US Ambassador to Pakistan Donald Blome wherein both sides discussed matters of mutual interests and strengthening of bilateral relations.

Earlier this week, sources told Geo News that Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif-led government has decided to initiate a national dialogue to root out terrorism and extremism in the country.

The move came after the federal government, last month, announced its decision to launch a new anti-terror drive titled "Operation Azm-e-Istehkam" — which drew reservations from several political parties including the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI), Jamiat Ulema-e-Islam (JUI-F), the Awami National Party (ANP), Jamaat-e-Islami (JI).

The Centre has maintained that "no large-scale military operation is being launched" in the country which might result in mass evictions and has reassured that the matter will be brought before the parliament. PM Shehbaz has also decided to convene an all-parties conference (APC) to evolve consensus on the operation with PTI founder Imran Khan supporting the initiative, saying his party would attend the government-hosted huddle. Meanwhile, the Pakistan Army has also denounced the undue criticism against the newly launched anti-terrorism operation stating that the "vision" was being misrepresented deliberately for "vested interests". In today's meeting with the US envoy, Naqvi underscored the significance of US support in strengthening Pakistan's law enforcement agencies. The meeting also focused on issues such as enhancing cooperation in combating terrorism, narcotics trafficking and bolstering security. The security czar also highlighted the recent discussions in New York to foster collaboration between the Islamabad Police and the New York Police Department.

It was decided that a delegation from Islamabad Police will soon visit New York to explore further opportunities for cooperation including training programmes. Reaffirming Islamabad's commitment to protecting all minorities, the minister emphasised their equal rights under the Constitution and said that all those accused in Jarawalva tragedy have been arrested and brought before the court.—RT/Agency

SC Ruling Could Result In PTI's Fragmentation: Faisal Vawda

ISLAMABAD: Senator Faisal Vawda has said that the Supreme Court's decision on the reserved seats case will have an adverse effect on the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI). Vawda said the opposition would continue to splinter in the coming days, making it increasingly difficult to manage. He said the PTI could soon face internal conflicts and the emergence of "forward blocs" since the nomination of reserved seats candidates has to be made by the chairman who is not in the position to do so and hence the party could further fragment. The larger bench of the Supreme Court led by Chief Justice Qazi Faez Isa announced its short order on Friday. The decision was reached with an 8-5 split, with five judges issuing dissenting notes. However, the majority decision of eight judges, including Syed Mansoor Ali Shah, Munir Akhtar, Muhammad Ali Mazhar, Ayesha A. Malik, Athar Minallah, Syed Hasan Azhar Rizvi, Shahid

Waheed and Irfan Saadat Khan was delivered by Justice Mansoor Ali Shah on the recommendation of the CJP. The SC majority verdict overturned the Peshawar High Court judgment dated March 25 and also declared the Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) order dated March 1 unconstitutional, lacking lawful authority and having no legal effect. The apex court declared that the denial of an election symbol does not affect the constitutional and legal rights of a political party in any manner to participate in an election and to field candidates whereas the ECP is under a constitutional duty to act, construe and apply all statutory provisions accordingly.—RT/Agency

FIA Declares Moonis Elahi And Five Others As 'Absconders' In Money Laundering Case

LAHORE: The Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) has declared Chaudhry Moonis Elahi and five other suspects as absconders in a money laundering case.

The declaration was made during a hearing at Lahore's Special Court where the FIA presented an incomplete challan.

The FIA's challan includes Moonis Elahi and co-accused Farayast Ali, Imtiaz Ali, Aamir Sohail, Wajid Ahmed, and Aamir Fayyaz as absconders, while Zara Elahi, Ahmed Farhan, and Saghim Abbas are mentioned as being out on bail.

The FIA requested the court to freeze the properties of all nine accused.

The court approved the freezing of properties for seven suspects, excluding Moonis Elahi and Saghim Abbas, whose lawyers sought time to present arguments.

The court has scheduled the submission of these arguments by August 20.

Judge Tanveer Ahmed Sheikh issued a written order following the preliminary hearing, stating that the FIA is coordinating with international police to apprehend Moonis Elahi.

Interpol has already issued red notices against him.

The order also includes allegations against Zara Elahi for receiving kickbacks due to her association with Moonis Elahi.

The investigating officer reported that Zara Elahi failed to account for her income.

The challan indicates that Saghim Abbas acted as Moonis Elahi's cash handler, facilitating illicit fund transfers into the bank accounts of other accused individuals, with Ahmed Farhan responsible for depositing the money into these accounts.—RT/Agency

Justice Served: Barrister Gohar Ali

ISLAMABAD: PTI Chairman Imran Khan has lauded the decision by an Islamabad district court to overturn Imran Khan and Bushra Bibi's conviction in the Iddat case, saying that "justice has been served."

Islamabad's District and Sessions Court led by Judge Muhammad Afzal Majoka initially reserved the decision in the Iddat case. The court later announced its decision acquitting the PTI supremo and his spouse while accepting their appeal against their February 3 conviction.

Lauding the judiciary strength, Gohar highlighted that Imran Khan consistently advocated for the rule of law and constitutional supremacy.

The PTI chairman

claimed that the case against Imran Khan was a form of pressure intended to compromise him.

He reported meeting Imran Khan at Adiala Jail, where he found the former premier in high spirits, expressing confidence that the PTI founder would be released and welcomed by the entire nation, proclaiming it as "the nation's victory." Reflecting on the case, Gohar criticised its foundation and declared it baseless, further adding that Imran Khan had two cases pending, but he looked forward to his release, saying the PTI founder would be released and welcomed by the nation.—RT/Agency

Imran Outlines Three Conditions For Talks With Government

RAWALPINDI: Incarcerated Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) founder Imran Khan on Saturday put forward three conditions to hold talks with the government in a bid to bring political stability in the country.

"The first condition is that my cases should be dismissed, the second is to release our party members and third is to return our mandate," Khan said while having an informal talk with the journalists in the courtroom.

Khan has time and again refused to hold talks with the ruling coalition, however, last month, he agreed to hold negotiations with his political rivals and picked Pashatunkhwa Milli Awami Party (PkMAP) Chairman Mahmood Khan Achakzai to lead the parleys.

Recalling that he held negotiations with former chief of army staff Gen (ret'd) Qamar Javed Bajwa, the PTI founder said that they had formed a three-member committee consisting of Asad Umar, Pervez Khattak and Shah Mehmood Qureshi at that time.

"We were told at that time that the 'baray sahib' [big boss] has decided not to conduct elections," said Khan, emphasising that his party cannot forget the "February 8 robbery" — a reference to the alleged rigging in the polls.

Khan warned that they will go on a hunger strike and highlight it on a global level. Speaking about Supreme Court's verdict on reserved seats, the PTI founder welcomed the decision and called it a "positive development".

"The SC's verdict has given hope to the people," said Khan, thanking the top court's judges for standing up for the supremacy of the law.

The apex court on Friday ruled that the party is eligible for the allocation of reserved seats, nullifying the Peshawar High Court's "February 8 robbery" — a reference to the alleged rigging in the polls.

Khan warned that they will go on a hunger strike and highlight it on a global level. Speaking about Supreme Court's verdict on reserved seats, the PTI founder welcomed the decision and called it a "positive development". "The SC's verdict has given hope to the people," said Khan, thanking the top court's judges for standing up for the supremacy of the law.

Shehbaz Directs FBR To Take Action To Eliminate Country's Debt

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Saturday directed the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) authorities to roll up their sleeves and be ready to serve the nation and rid the country of debts.

In doing so, the premier, directed them to formulate a strategy and mechanism coupled with usage of latest technology to broaden the tax net base without further burdening the honest tax payers.

During a visit to FBR Headquarters, PM Shehbaz said that the incumbent government had the sole agenda of putting Pakistan on path of progress with consistent improvement in the economic indicators.

"Though it may be a difficult journey which requires collective and individual efforts, sincerity and sacrifices and putting forth the national interests supreme over all other interests," he emphasised.

Terming the staff-level arrangement with International Monetary Fund (IMF) as a positive omen for the country's economy, he expressed the hope that the lender's board would also give a go ahead in this regard. PM Shehbaz expressed the confidence that Pakistan could become a great and prosperous country with collective and individual efforts.—RT/Agency
